FINANCIAL STATEMENT TO THE PARISH

Over the last year, we have shared with you the financial concerns of the Parish and some of the actions taken to reduce expenses. Due to our combined efforts, we are pleased to share with you some positive news.

Contributions have indeed increased. Furthermore, the budget has been challenged and total expenses reduced. As a result, our financial situation has improved and stabilized.

However, in these difficult economic times, we realize that we must be continually watchful of all our expenses and we ask that you all continue to support St. Boniface as best you can through weekly contributions, fund-raising activities, and most importantly your prayers.

Notes from the Pastor

Hi, it's me again. Somewhere in our world a religious leader has said to his people, "Someday we all will die and be called to judgment in the Heavenly Court." All our sins will be revealed and discussed. All our inner most secrets will be presented and scrutinized by the court. The leader noticed a man chuckling and laughing aloud. He asked the man the reason for his reaction. He said, "I'm not a member of this community." We sometimes think the call to repentance is directed at everyone else and not ourselves.

The central theme today is an invitation to repent, to do penance, and renew our lives instead of carrying the heavy baggage of our sins.

Our gospel points out a courtesy that was omitted when Christ visited a leading official of that day. An uninvited guest, a public prostitute, showed a sign of repentance and love. She washed the feet of Jesus.

Part of forgiveness is to be a forgiving person ourselves. We need to accept the mercy of God. We show gratitude to God for unconditionally and repeatedly pardoning our sins.

We should cultivate a forgiving attitude toward our neighbor. Although it is not easy, we must learn to forgive those who hurt us if we want to be able to receive the daily forgiveness we need from a merciful God.

Carry On.

Ever wonder what would happen if we treated our Bible like we treat our cell phone?

What if we carried it around in our purses or pockets?

What if we flipped through it several times a day?

What if we turned back to go get it if we forgot it?

What if we used it to receive messages from the text?

What if we treated it like we couldn't live without it?

What if we gave it to Kids as gifts?

What if we used it when we traveled?

What if we used it in case of emergency?

This is something ....hmm...where is my Bible?

Oh, and one more thing; unlike our cell phone, we don't have to worry about our Bible being disconnected because Jesus already paid the bill. Makes you stop and think 'where are my priorities? And no dropped calls!

When Jesus died on the cross,
he was thinking of you!
