Notes from the Pastor

Hi, it's me again.

Announcing the good news of the Kingdom by word, deed, and life is not the task of only a few but it is rather a task for all Baptized Christians.

We need to continue the preaching mission. We should attract others to our faith by exemplarily lives just as a rose attracts people by it's beauty and fragrance.

We need to avoid the counter witnessing of practicing the supermarket Catholicism. -Choose this, but not that— We should not be armchair Catholics or Sunday Catholics.

Let's start preaching the gospel in our families, where spouses love and respect each other, raise their children in the spirit of obedience and service, disciplining them with forgiving love and teaching them to pray, love, and help others by sharing their blessings.

Jesus gives the Apostles and us travel tips. Ask the Lord to send workers to the harvest. In proclaiming the good news, we too participate in God's work. It is the Lord who is working in and through us. He asks us to travel light, let go, let God. Need to remember the mission is urgent, so nothing should divert us from the mission. Don't take rejection personally. When we have done our part, don't worry about the outcome.

Have a safe and happy Independence Day! Let's keep in mind all our troops overseas and those in the Gulf involved in the oil spill. I hope many of you can join us on Monday at 9:00am in the Garden of Memories for our Mass followed by coffee and fellowship.

Carry On.

June 28, 2010

To the wonderful parishioners of St. Boniface,

Thank you for your generous contributions to the religious education program. We have received donations for scholarships for at least four children, and a wonderful gift of a television set that can be moved from classroom to classroom. Your kindness is greatly appreciated. Each and every gift is part of our community effort to evangelize young people.

The religious articles donation box has been a huge success. It has been filled up every week. In fact, it has become a favorite spot for people to check for a medal of a favorite saint, or a scapular, or a cross or something else that has special meaning in their lives. The religious education program now has more than enough religious articles for the children to choose from, so why not continue keeping this treasure box and invite the entire parish to take part in this exchange. It can become a "give and take" treasure station for all of us to share.

A few comments on the contributions:

One woman said she wanted to give back. Her son received a scholarship when he was in pre-school. She would not have been able to afford to send him without that support. Another, donated about 20 "WWJD" pins. (What Would Jesus Do) They are really quite beautiful, and they carry a beautiful message. One family said they were going to bring registration forms to their place of business "just to make sure people that come to their office, know that St. Boniface Church is in their area".

Sincerely,
Kay Olive-Kelly
Religious Education

ParishPay

Automated giving is a voluntary program available now which can be used to support the parish instead of envelopes. In lieu of weekly collections, the ParishPay program will collect monthly contributions from your checking, savings, or credit card account. There is NO cost or binding contract to participate in the program.

What are the benefits to me and the parish?

- Allows you to plan your giving, in the same way you budget your other financial commitments. Just take your annual contribution and divide it by 12 to calculate your monthly offering (Weekly contribution times 52, divided by 12).
- You don't have to be concerned about catching-up missed offertory donations when you miss a Mass because you are out of town, ill, etc.
- You can easily adjust the amount of your automated contribution (up or down) through the Rectory or via a secure website access.
- You no longer need to write a check every week or worry about forgetting your envelope and your collection being properly credited.
- You can earn points and/or mileage on your credit card.
- You will receive an accurate year end report for tax purposes.
- If you choose to participate in the Automated Giving Program, this will replace your weekly envelopes, saving the parish printing costs.
- Special donation slips are available for those enrolled in the automated giving program that can be dropped into the collection basket, should you wish.
- You can specify your giving level for Second Collections and other celebration dates (e.g., Christmas, Easter) when you join the Automated Giving Program, or anytime thereafter.

How do I enroll?

All you need to do is call the rectory for assistance, or you can do it yourself by calling 1-866-Parish1 or visit www.Parishpay.com

The bulletin deadline is now Monday 5:00pm.
Emailed announcements are preferred, please send to r399@archny.org or leave a voicemail on Ext. 15.
